Herdade do Esporão's wine tourism unit was voted Best of 2016 by the magazine Revista Wine – A Essência do Vinho.

Located at Herdade do Esporão, near the town of Reguengos de Monsaraz, it invites visitors to explore the estate via guided tours, wine and olive oil tastings, different trips and group activities. With Chef Pedro Penas Bastos at the helm, Restaurante Esporão makes this destination even more appealing.

Open since 1997, Herdade do Esporão's wine tourism unit has been a pioneer in Portugal, with its activities always governed by the Time of the Land, by each season, in tune with nature's cycles and what they have to offer.

About Esporão: Founded in 1973 by José Roquette and Joaquim Bandeira, Esporão's is one of the most important wine companies in Portugal. It is a key factor in making the Alentejo an important name in both national and international markets, Esporão is also an ambassador of Portuguese culture, operating in a sustainable way, while building close ties with customers and consumers the world over.

Esporão is based in the Alentejo region, where it produces iconic wines, such as Esporão Reserva and Monte Velho, as well as extra-virgin olive oils. Herdade do Esporão also boasts an excellent wine tourism project on the same site as the wineries. The company's project now also extends to Quinta dos Murças, an estate in the Douro region that produces wines with terroir and the company's same guarantee of quality.

Esporão sells its products in a range of shops and restaurants in over 50 countries in the world. The company's holistic approach in adapting a wide range of innovative sustainable practices led to the attribution of the coveted and prestigious "Sustainability of the Year Award" at the "The Drinks Business Green Awards 2013". In 2014, Esporão won an award at the "European Business Awards for the Environment" in the "Products and Services" category.
